Committee Reports

- PR- there should be an article in the next digest about staff development funds.
- CommunitE Bulletin Board- A publicity flyer is still in the works. Nothing has been posted on the board in three months. Karen suggested consolidating the categories so there would be fewer mouse clicks.

Old Business

- Leave policy- Both copies of the policy will be on the N drive and it will be brought to faculty senate today. Questions remain about part-time status and full-time faculty versus teaching faculty.
- CPR/ First Aid- We are still trying to work with the Red Cross but that has been difficult. Scott Marshall is certified to teach these classes so we might approach him to do them for us.

New Business-

- Chili Cook-off- It will be held Wednesday, April 6th from 11:30am until 1:30pm. We have six judges lined up and will be soliciting donations from Wal-Mart. Jill Brady passed out the flyer. We will not require contestants to pay to sample all chili. Pie in the face will follow the cook off.
- Pie in the Face- Jennifer Collins in Admissions is heading up a team this year. We need to contact her. We need approx. 12 people to be on the "ballot". Lynn, Allison, Jeanette, Nancy, Karen and I will collect the money in our respective buildings.
- Mission Statement Revision- Nancy presented the council with two handouts, which she compiled while researching awards on other campuses. The first is a collection of mission statements from around the state. The second is a comparison between Kennesaw State and NGCSU staff council mission statements. Nancy asked the group to consider changing our statement to reflect who we are rather than the things we do. We will discuss the mission statement at our next meeting.

Other –

- Continuing Educ. Will be sponsoring a celebration luncheon for Secretary's Day on Wednesday, April 27th. The cost is $25 per person for a maximum of 125 people.
